Henrico Police mourning and shrouding their badges today

(Henrico County, Va.) – Henrico County Police mourns the loss of one of their own after a tragic 3-vehicle crash along Rt. 301 Wednesday evening. Today, officers are shrouding their badges to honor the officer who passed away while colleagues and family supported one another at a local hospital.

Officer Trey Marshall Sutton, 22, of Chesterfield County was hired in June 2021 and most recently graduated the basic police academy in February 2022. Officer Sutton was currently assigned to the Patrol Bureau, where he was in field training, with his partner.

Two adults remain hospitalized with life-threatening injuries. The crash remains under investigation.

“This is a tragedy for everyone, and my thoughts and prayers are with everyone involved. God bless Officer Sutton for his chosen profession - law enforcement and commitment to Henrico County. Sutton was a well-respected member of his recent academy class,” says Chief of Police Eric D. English.
