

Henrico Citizens and Senior Citizens Police Academies

Discover what it feels like to be the person “behind the badge.”

When you attend one of our academies, you’ll experience some of the same training recruits receive, including:

- Meet the Police Command Staff, and hear how they manage the business side of law enforcement and Internal Affairs.
- Hear engaging stories from detectives, Communications officers, and officers from the Canine Unit.
- Discover the science of Crash Investigations, Forensic Investigations, and the Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AFIS).
- Gain valuable knowledge about crime prevention.
- Meet new people and make new friends while having fun!

The academies are free and limited to Henrico County citizens, employees and immediate family of division members and division volunteers. The citizens academy is open to those 18 years of age and older. The senior academy is open to those age 50 and older. Academy classes are held at the Henrico Training Center, located at 7701 E. Parham Road.
