

My Henrico Academy

Asian, Latino and other immigrant community members can get a behind-the-scenes glimpse into the way their local government works at the new My Henrico Academy.

Participants will learn about Henrico County operations; various programs, services and resources available to them; and ways they can engage and work with Henrico County. They also will have the opportunity to get to know county officials and community leaders.

- One session each month from June to January
- Led by Henrico officials and staff
- Topics: Federal, State and Local Governance; Henrico Schools and Libraries; Public Safety; Roads and Utilities; Economic Development; Recreation and Parks; Community Health Services; and more
- Free! Apply online at <https://bit.ly/2Ta0urC> or at henrico.us/pr

My Henrico Academy is geared toward Henrico's Asian, Latino and immigrant communities. Participation is open to residents age 21 and older. Applications will be accepted through April 26.

My Henrico Academy is financially supported by the Asian & Latino Solidarity Alliance of Central Virginia (ALSA-CV). ALSA-CV is a 501(c)3 nonprofit dedicated to advancing common objectives impacting the Asian and Latino communities in the Central Virginia Region.
