Henrico to consider real estate tax dividend, 2-cent rate cut

Henrico County will consider paying a dividend to property owners in the first half of 2022 that would amount to a 2-cent rate reduction for real estate taxes paid this year.

In preparing a budget for fiscal 2022-23, officials also will look at a corresponding move to lower the real estate tax rate from 87 cents currently to 85 cents per $100 of assessed value.

County Manager John A. Vithoukas outlined the recommendations in broad terms as part of his 2021 State of the County address, which was held Dec. 9 at the Hilton Richmond Hotel and Spa in Short Pump. More details.

Language Access

Henrico County provides residents with interpretation and translation support in more than 200 languages. You may request to receive help in your home language when you are visiting a department in person or when you call a department for assistance.
