Susan Greenbaum

Sat, Sep 8, 7pm.

Susan Greenbaum has committed the first sin of musicians: she quit her day job. After working as a corporate executive, Susan traded her power suits for performing. Susan has won several national songwriting awards, including the Smithsonian Songwriters Award in 2009 and the Philadelphia Songwriters Project songwriting contest in June, 2008. She draws big, enthusiastic audiences who delight in her lively, diverse, and powerful performances.

The English Channel

Sat, Sep 22, 7pm.

The English Channel returns for an all-new version of their fab concert experience, "AM•FM Hits of the British Invasion Decade." You'll hear - and see - your fave Brit rock & pop tunes performed just like the original recordings and just like you remember.

Tyler Hughes Old Time Music and Appalachian Dance

Fri, Oct 12, 7pm.

An award-winning banjoist and dancer, Tyler Hughes presents the living musical traditions of Southwest Virginia in the Appalachian Mountains. A multi-instrumentalist, he performs on banjo, guitar, autoharp, and dulcimer. This highly entertaining concert includes old and new songs and is accompanied with family-friendly tales and true stories about the music's origins.

Tyler Hughes

Richard Williams Trio

Fri, Oct 19, 7pm.

This highly entertaining ensemble has been together for thirty years and plays ragtime, boogie woogie and old country. The group features William Hayes on piano/vocals, J.T. Fauber on drums and Richard Adams on saxes, trumpets, trombone, bass, vocals and if enough room, tuba!

Bak N Da Day

Fri, Nov 9, 7pm.

Take a trip down memory lane with Richmond's quintessential oldies vocal group as they sing music spanning the 50s, 60s, and 70s.

Bak N Da Day

Joshua Lozoff

Fri, Nov 16, 7pm.

Magic, mind-reading, mentalism and mystery! Joshua's show combines his love for the art of magic, and his fascination with psychology, intuition and other "inner workings of the mind."

Christmas with KOS & Susan Greenbaum

Sat, Dec 15, 4 & 7pm.

Come join us for an evening filled with holiday favorites from Richmond's own KOS and Susan Greenbaum. Listen to their unique arrangements and sounds of the seasonal songs you love.

Uncommon

Sat, Jan 12, 7pm.

As the name suggests, Uncommon isn't just another contemporary a cappella group. Founded in 2013, this eclectic semi-professional septet draws inspiration from RVA's legendary indie music scene to create a vocal sound all its own. With a unique arranging approach that fuses indie and alternative rock with jazz, barbershop, and anything else that sounds cool, this award winning vocal band aims to show the audiences exactly what it means to #SingDifferent!

John Bullard in Concert

Fri, Jan 25, 7pm.

John Bullard has gained international attention for his work in developing a classical repertoire for the five-string banjo.

This is banjo as you've never heard it - as a perfect southern art. For this concert, John will be joined by Markus Compton on piano.

Riddick Dance Company presents The King Project

Sat, Feb 9, 7pm.

Riddick Dance is a contemporary dance company known for its broad dance repertory, expressive movement, athleticism and fusion of dance styles. This performance is in commemoration of the rewriting of Dr. Martin Luther King's I Have A Dream speech, Letter from Birmingham Jail, and I've Been to the Mountaintop Speech. By placing Dr. King's important writings in a performance setting, choreographers David Riddick and Marshall Swiney create a fusion of contemporary movement with sounded oration, blurring the boundaries between the speech and dance performance.

The Crooked Road on Tour

Sat, Feb 23, 7pm.

The Crooked Road: Virginia's Heritage Music Trail concert celebrates the traditional music that has been kept by families and communities of Southwest Virginia since colonial times. This concert features exemplary artists Sandy Shortridge (guitar and vocals) and Erynn Marshall and Carl Jones (fiddle, guitar, banjo and mandolin).

Shannon Brown presents A Tribute to Patsy Cline

Sat, Mar 23, 7pm.

Shannon Brown brings to life the music of country great, Patsy Cline. Her beautiful voice and soulful interpretations of Patsy Cline's music will not only remind you of the legend herself, but will have you humming along and wishing she could sing for you all night long!

Rootstone Jug Band

Fri, Mar 29, 7pm.

This versatile ensemble presents the rural roots of American music. Rootstone Jug Band evokes a time before radios and recordings when folk songs were woven into the fabric of rural life. Old-time songs from Virginia come alive again and are presented alongside material from classic jug bands and songsters of Memphis.

The Mullins Sisters

Sat, Apr 13, 7pm.

This National recording family affair from Hampton Roads spans decades of Virginia entertainment. With deep musical roots from the Southwest part of the state, Deanna, Betty and Mary deliver their original songs and today's country in a pure harmony as only siblings can. Add in three Troublemakers, Darren Simons, Billy Moran, and Derrin Foster, and you get a very talented group of entertainers that will leave you wanting more!

Latin Ballet of Virginia presents Fiesta del Sol

Sat, Apr 27, 7pm.

The Latin Ballet of Virginia will present Fiesta del Sol (Party of the Sun) featuring culture and traditions of the Caribbean. This colorful and lively piece, performed by the professional company, is a salute to Hispanic Folklore dance theatre.

Le Hotclub

Fri, May 10, 7pm.

In the 1930s a style of music became popular known as "gypsy jazz." Today this music is kept alive by Le Hotclub. This concert will display the energetic dance music that has that unmistakable gypsy sound, including jazz standards, original compositions and their own arrangements of traditional gypsy folk songs.

KOS Band

Fri, May 17, 7pm.

The KOS Band has been playing all the best dance music for the past 45 years. With motown, classic rock 'n roll and hits from the 60s through today, The KOS Band does it all – ALL night long.

Experience what crowds up and down the East Coast have been enjoying at concerts, corporate events, weddings, and club dates for more than 40 years – an exciting, powerful, and dynamic 11 piece musical entity known and loved by thousands as – The KOS Band.
