

Henrico's Historical Sites

Across

- The _____ Museum was dedicated in 1970 to a creative leader in education.
- This structure reflects a new era of dairy farming after the development of pasteurization. Today the building serves as a recreation center.
- A luxury hotel which housed 150 rooms and stood six stories high on 1,000 acres.
- The Henrico _____ built in 1938 and was constructed of poured concrete and brick. Today it hosts second-run movies and live performances.
- Now known as the Confederate Hills Recreation Center, this building originally served as a meeting place for the _____ Club of Richmond.
- This house was constructed in 1810 and continues to host tours year-round.
- This farm, formerly known as Locust Grove, was home to the _____ family from 1849 until 1972.
- This tavern is a 19th century brick structure and one of the oldest taverns in Henrico County.
- This one-room school for African Americans likely received its name after the nearby Springfield mines.

Down

- The house at Meadowview was built in 1915 by Edmund Christian. Today the house is known as the _____ House.
- c. 1850s home to the Warren family which is now used as the _____ Recreation Center.
- 19th century home in the East End interpreting life in 1930s America.
- The _____ Service Station is a prototype of the "house with a canopy" design by the Standard Oil Company.
- House that served as Robert E. Lee's headquarters in 1862.
- The _____ School was constructed in 1902 to serve area white students aged five to seventeen at the corner of Three Chopt and Cox Roads.
- The _____ Community House is a 1920s clapboard structure built to serve as a meeting place for the Windsor Club of _____.
- The RF&P _____ cars linked the North to the South from 1834 until 1991.

Word Bank

Armour	Deep Run	Nuckols
Belmont	Dorey Barn	Railroad
Clarke Palmore	Elko	Theatre
Coalpit	Forest Lodge	Virginia Randolph
Courtney Road	Locomotive	Walkerton
Dabbs	Meadow Farm	