

Join Our Team!

Help us to be reflective of the community we serve. Become a member of our team as a police officer, animal protection police officer, or emergency communications officer.

Visit henricopolice.org/police-employment to learn more or call one of our recruiters at 501-5197.

Report all crime to the police - no matter how minor or embarrassing. Your actions can help others from becoming victims.

Call the non-emergency phone number, 501-5000 if your problem is not life threatening.

Examples: Noisy neighbors, barking dogs, and other similar problems or questions are non-emergencies.

Call 911 in an emergency only!

- Stay on the phone!
- Remain calm and tell the call taker if you need police, fire-fighters, or medical help.
- Speak slowly and clearly.
- Tell them your exact location including street name and number.
- Listen carefully to what the call taker is telling you to do, and do it.

The Police Division is Internationally Accredited.

Henrico County Police Division
P. O. Box 90775
Henrico, VA 23273-0775

Emergency: 911

Non-emergency: (804) 501-5000
www.henricopolice.org

Humberto I. Cardounel, Jr.
Chief of Police

Proud of our progress;
Excited about our future.

The County of Henrico does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or disability.

Summer 2016/PIO/CRD

Henrico Police and Our LGBTQ Community

The Police Division embraces diversity and is guided by principles of Fair and Impartial Policing. Our goal is to keep you safe through working partnerships between police and the LGBTQ Community.

Embrace Diversity

Report all suspicious activity!
Call the Henrico County
Police Division at 501-5000

or
911—Emergency only

---

Henrico County
Division of Police

Develop Police/Community Partnerships - Get Involved - Stay Safe!

Help Us Develop Partnerships.

The Police Division is dedicated to keeping all of its citizens safe and protecting their rights. Fair and Impartial Policing is the Guiding Principle of the Police Division's daily operations. Basically, it means we treat all others as we would want to be treated or as we would want our family members treated. Partner with us through one of the programs listed below.

We have many services, resources, and programs we provide to our citizens. Some of those are as follows:

- LGBTQ Liaison - The Division has appointed Captain Linda Toney as the Henrico Police LGBTQ Community Liaison. Get to know her, and discuss with her any concerns you may have. Call 501-4838 to contact Captain Toney.
- Domestic Violence (DV) Support - Our Domestic Violence Coordinator provides services and resources to help those in violent relationships. For more information, click on the Domestic Violence Assistance tab on our webpage or call our DV Coordinator at 501-5732 to learn more.
- Community Services - We offer a variety of services, programs, or resources to you, your group, or organization at no charge. Please visit our webpage (henricopolice.org) and click on the Services, Programs, or Resources tabs to see our offerings.

Get Involved!

The Police Division offers many opportunities to become involved with our officers and staff members. Some of those opportunities are listed below:

- Citizens Police Academies - Twice annually, we offer a Citizens Police Academy and a Senior Citizens Police Academy. Once annually, we offer a Youth Police Academy. Call 501-4838 to find out when the next academy will be held, and apply.
- Volunteer Opportunities - The Division offers many opportunities for volunteers. From Motorist Assistance to clerical support, there are many ways you can become involved and support the Division through your skills and talents.
- Neighborhood Watch - Find out if your neighborhood has a Neighborhood Watch. If not, call us to find out how to start one. Call 501-4838 for more information.
- Faith Community Coalition - The Division is committed to protecting its citizens' rights including their freedom of religion. Its partnership with the faith community through its Faith Community Coalition provides crime prevention training and support to those in leadership positions within their house of worship. To find out if your house of worship is part of the Faith Community Coalition, or to learn more, call 501-4838.

S.A.L.T. - Seniors and Law Enforcement Together /Triad - This group of active seniors stays involved with police and sheriff's departments to stay informed and engaged in senior safety. They enjoy programs and presentations at their meetings. For more information or to join, call 501-4838.

Your Safety is Important to Us!

- Our officers are available to conduct security surveys of your home, business, or house of worship, as well as presentations on personal safety, active shooter, general crime prevention, and more. Simply call 501-5933 to schedule your security survey, program, or presentation and give at least 30 days prior notice.
- We have many safety brochures online at henricopolice.org/brochures. Follow the tips and suggestions to keep yourself and your loved ones safe.

Follow us on Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, and Pinterest.