HISTORY

History in Focus Tours - Meadow Farm Museum/Crump Park

Stop by for a tour between 1 & 4pm. Meet at the Parsons Community Center. Information: cha129@henrico.us

Pocahontas: Sat, Nov 6, 1-4pm.

She's on the Henrico County seal and many Virginians trace their ancestry to her, but who was she? Join us for a historical tour about the life and times of Matoaka, Pocahontas, Rebecca Rolfe.

Votes for Women: Sat, Nov 13, 1-4pm.

Over one hundred years ago, American society experienced a momentous change - the 19th Amendment gave women the right to vote. Elizabeth Adam Crump of Meadow Farm would be one of the first women in Henrico to cast a ballot. Join us for a focused tour to learn more about the long struggle to achieve women's suffrage.

Lecture - The English Pocahontas (1613-1617): Ten Essential Questions

Sun, Nov 7, 2-3:30pm. Belmont Recreation Center.

Pocahontas became a Christian English woman in April 1614 and became a vital element to the alliance between the Virginia Company of London colonists and the Powhatan people. This presentation by historian John Pagano will look at how Pocahontas came to live with the English and what impact she had on the history of Virginia as a result of those actions. Recommended for ages 13+. Information: den63@henrico.us
