Message from the Director

Spring has sprung! A big thank you to the community for joining us in throwing a party for the park as we reopened Cheswick. We've also enjoyed flying kites, watching the Solar Eclipse, touching trucks, and more! While we bid farewell to the pollen, there's much to look forward to this summer. We're planning our biggest celebration yet at Taylor Farm Park - an event you won't want to miss! Join us for the free and fun Juneteenth and July 4th Celebrations - suitable for the whole family. Lastly, July is Parks and Recreation Month with the theme "Where You Belong." We hope that we've created an environment that makes you feel that way and we can't wait to spend summer with you!

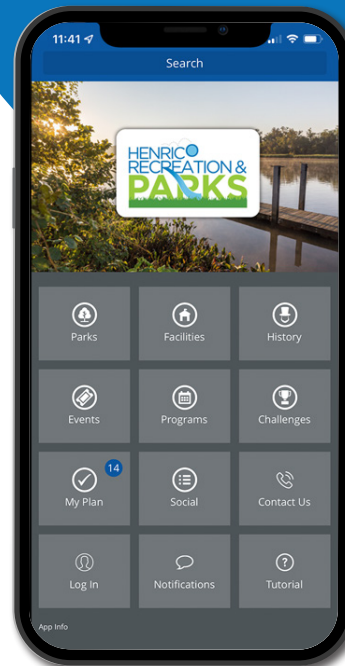

John Zannino

Henrico County Recreation & Parks joined the ranks of elite park and recreation agencies across the country by earning accreditation through the Commission for Accreditation of Park and Recreation Agencies (CAPRA) and the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA).

CAPRA accreditation is the only national accreditation for park and recreation agencies and is a measure of an agency's overall quality of operation, management and service to the community. This mark of distinction indicates that an agency has met rigorous standards related to the management and administration of lands, facilities, resources, programs, safety and services.

HENRICO COUNTY VIRGINIA 250 AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Movie in the Park: Johnny Tremain

Fri, Jun 7, 8:30-10pm. Clarke-Palmore House. #15754

All ages. The Henrico 250 Committee invites you to travel back in time as we watch the movie, Johnny Tremain. Follow in the footsteps of a teenage boy as he decides which path to take in the early days of the Revolutionary War, meeting spies, witnessing the Boston Tea Party, and seeing the first shots of the American Revolution. Activities will be offered before movie begins at sundown. Bring a lawn chair, blanket, flashlight and your family. Free popcorn and shaved ice while supplies last! Information: den63@henrico.us

What They Wore to the American Revolution

Sat, Jul 13, 2-3pm. Deep Run Rec Center. #15737

Ages 10+. The 18th-century styles in men's and women's clothing were also considered revolutionary. Discover the glorious, the frugal, and of course the tantalizing creations of an era in fashion that made an impact that was heard around the world! Information: sch107@henrico.us

Forgotten Patriots: Virginia's Black Revolutionary Soldiers

Sun, Jul 14, 2-3:30pm. Belmont Rec Center. #15660

Ages 10+. In 1781, citizens of Henrico and the counties surrounding Richmond witnessed the American Revolution come right through their communities. Black Virginia men camped, marched, and fought side by side with their white neighbors in pursuit of liberty and independence from English rule. Join historian John Pagano as he shares about these overlooked roles of Black Patriots and how their contributions helped the ideas of the Revolution take root. Information: den63@henrico.us

1774, The Year of Resolves: Preparing for War

Thur, Aug 8, 7-8:30pm. Belmont Rec Center. #15750

Ages 10+. The year 1774. 250 years ago, saw Henrico County and Virginia move quickly towards war with England. How did we go from peaceful protests to violence and threats? Within six months the Revolution was underway. Join us to learn how people in Virginia and Henrico County moved towards preparing for war. Information: den63@henrico.us

History in the Stacks

In collaboration with Henrico Public Library

Historically Speaking: Wake of War Aftermath of Seven Pines

Sat, Jun 1, 11am-noon. Sandston Branch Library. #15664

Ages 16+. Henrico's rural communities of Seven Pines and Fair Oaks experienced first-hand the horrors of war on May 31-June 1, 1862. The battle scarred the land, the buildings, and its residents. Join us as we share the stories about the aftermath of this first, big battle on Henrico's soil. Information: den63@henrico.us

Blast from the Past Book Club

Tue, Jun 11, 1-3pm. Henrico Theatre. #15724

Tue, Aug 13, 1-3pm. Dorey Rec Center. #15744

Ages 14+. Join Meadow Farm staff and Henrico County Public Library for our bimonthly book club! We will read a new book and visit a different Henrico County historic site every other month. After the book discussion, we will talk about the ties between the site and the book. A tour of the site is included. June: The Color of Law: A Forgotten History of How Our Government Segregated America by Richard Rothstein. August: American Fire: Love, Arson, and Life in a Vanishing Land by Monica Hesse. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Tue, Jun 25, 10-11:30am. Fairfield Area Library. #15698

Ages 13+. Library of Virginia will lead a transcription workshop featuring materials from their Virginia Untold digital project. Using the "From the Page" platform, participants will transcribe handwritten documents related to the lives of enslaved and free Black people in pre-1865 Henrico County. There will be a short presentation introducing the project and its usage, plus instruction to guide the group in a hands-on transcription activity.

Registration is required and opens May 28.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Library. Information: kbridges@henricolibrary.org

Before DEI

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

Victorian Flower Language and the LGBTQ+ Community

Sat, Jun 15, 2-3 pm. Meadow Farm. #15725

All ages. Courting or dating in the Victorian Era was very different from dating now. Flowers of different types and colors were frequently used to convey the nature of romantic intentions by a suitor or their intended. The same gender loving men and woman of the era adapted their own usages of flowers to subtly convey their own romantic interests. This Pride Month, join us to learn about the development and meaning behind these floral exchanges. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Ahead of Her Time: The Life and Work of Ethel Bailey Furman

Sat, Jul 6, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15734

Ages 10+. Ethel Madison Bailey was born prematurely on July 6, 1893. Her survival was uncertain, but she fought hard and overcame the odds. As an adult, she defied expectations again to become the first African American and the first woman to obtain an architecture license in Virginia. Join us to discover more about the extraordinary life of Ethel Bailey Furman. Information: sch107@henrico.us

John Mitchell, Jr.: The Rise and Fall of the Fighting Editor

Sat, Jul 13, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15736

Ages 10+. Born into slavery in Henrico County, John Mitchell, Jr. would become known as the fighting editor of the Richmond Planet newspaper confronting the violence and injustices of the Jim Crow South through his publication. Whether it was through the organizing of boycotts, the endless crusading against lynching laws, or public appearances to allow his persecutors to do their worst, Mitchell would not back down. Join us as we explore his remarkable life. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Abscinded from the Subscriber: Fugitive Slave Advertisements

Sat, Aug 10, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15742

Ages 10+. Enslaved people were a significant investment and often an enslaver's most valuable asset. When the enslaved self-emancipated, enslavers frequently placed advertisements in not only their local newspaper but papers through the country, seeking to have their assets captured and returned to them. Join us as we take a look at these advertisements and discover a different perspective on the relationship between enslaver and enslaved. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Gabriel and a Man Named Nat: The Fight for Freedom

Sat, Aug 31, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15749

Ages 16+. Join us as we explore the life of two men that changed Virginia history. Learn about their complex lives and how they both met the challenge of being enslaved in a country that said: "All men are created equal." Information: sch107@henrico.us

In Memory Of...

History in Focus: Murder, Mayhem and Natural Causes

Sat, Jun 22, 2-3pm. Belmont Rec Center. #15728

Before Sherlock Holmes and C.S.I., how were suspicious deaths investigated? Join us for this focused presentation as we examine Mosby Sheppard's career as a coroner during the early 1800s in Henrico County. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Greater Richmond Post Emancipation Uplift Cemeteries

Sun, Jun 23, 3-4pm. Eastern Henrico Rec Center. #15732

Ages 10+. Learn more about the historic African American cemeteries that are the final resting place to many influential people who helped make the greater Richmond area what it is today. The program will focus on Henrico's Woodland and East End cemeteries and Richmond's Evergreen Cemetery: three historic sacred grounds that fell into years of disarray but are in the midst of being restored by extensive volunteer efforts. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Coffins, Crypts, and Epitaphs in Old Virginia

Sun, Aug 18, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15746.

Ages 16+. Some of the formal final resting places in Virginia are sublime, others eerie and frightening. In the age before modern medicine, sudden disease and death walked daily beside the living. Superstition and myths sprang from the constant hope of outsmarting the Grim Reaper. Information: sch107@henrico.us

HISTORY PROGRAMS

All programs are free. No registration required.

FRIDAY AT THE MUSEUM

Fri, Jun 7, noon-4pm. Clarke-Palmore House. #15597
Fri, Jul 12, noon-4pm. Virginia Randolph Museum. #15598
Fri, Aug 2, noon-4pm. Dabbs House Museum. #15599
All ages. Henrico Recreation and Parks owns, preserves, and interprets historic properties all over the County. Discover the rich and varied heritage of this vibrant community we call home. Join us to hear the stories of the people, places, and events through tours and hands-on activities. Information: leh@henrico.us

Gone to the Dogs

So You Bit the Hand that Fed You: A History of Rabies

Sat, Aug 17, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15745
Ages 10+. Rabies vaccines are often required for household pets, like cats and dogs, but have you ever stopped to wonder why? Is the disease really prevalent enough to warrant such strong precautions? What was rabies like before the vaccine? Join us to learn the answer to these questions and more. Discover the epidemiology of rabies and prominent cases and people in the history of the disease. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Beyond the Footlights

The Dazzling Josephine Baker

Sun, Jun 2, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15715
Ages 10+. Brilliant, beautiful, and brave are only a few of the words to describe the American dancer and French Resistance soldier in World War II: Josephine Baker. She was noted for her contribution to the Civil Rights movement and after the death of Martin Luther King, Jr. was offered the unofficial leadership of the Civil Rights movement by Coretta Scott King. Join us to learn more about the dazzling Josephine Baker. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Grand Old Theaters in Richmond's History

Sat, Jun 29, 11am-noon. Henrico Theatre. #15729
Ages 10+. Find out what legendary actors famously strutted and fretted upon the stages in Virginia as they sought to catch the rising star of fame. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Mother Maybelle and the Carter Sisters in Henrico

Sat, Aug 24, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15748
All ages. Did you know Henrico was once the home to Mother Maybelle and the Carter girls? Yes, THOSE Carters! Come learn about their years in the county in the midst of their rise to fame in the country music world. Learn about the various people, events, and iconic radio broadcasts right here that served as fuel in their meteoric rise to fame. Information: sch107@henrico.us

Neighborhood Stories

Mapping the World: Propaganda

Sat, Jun 8, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15718
Ages 10+. Join us to discover the ties between maps and propaganda in the second installment of our "Mapping the World" series. Maps are not always straightforward navigational tools. They can be biased, misleading, and used to promote political views. Learn how maps were used to influence different historical events. Information: sch107@henrico.us

History of Glen Allen

Sun, Jun 9, 2-3pm. Meadow Farm. #15605
All ages. The history of Glen Allen is tied tightly to the road that traverses the center of it - Mountain Road. Hear about some of the events that took place along the road, the people that have traveled it, and get an overview of some of the sites (and sights) that have shaped Glen Allen to be what it is today. Information: leh@henrico.us

Mapping the World: Redlining in Richmond and Henrico

Sat, Aug 17, 11am-noon. Henrico Theatre. #15743

Ages 10+. Set in the white flight neighborhood of Highland Springs, but only a short distance from the all African American community of Bungalow City, learn how Richmond, Henrico, and other localities across America mapped out who could live where. Discover what neighborhoods were deemed “risky” and therefore denied mortgages and investments. Learn about the long-lasting and complex consequences of redlining including environmental injustice, health disparities, and continued cycles of poverty. Information:

A Mixed-Up Fairy Tale

Presented by Henrico Teen Theatre Company

July 31,
Aug 1 & 2
10am & 2pm

The Cultural Arts Center
at Glen Allen

Directed by Sarah Welch.

The Grimm brothers are writing their stories late into the night when suddenly a terrible gust of wind flings open the door and blows the pages everywhere. The entire world of fairy tales gets utterly mixed up in this silly one-act! Performed by children, for children.

Fun for the entire family! Free, reservations required.

For reservations call 804-501-5859 or per22@henrico.us

Presented by SPARC

Aug 9 at 3:45, 5:30, & 7:15pm. Henrico Theatre.

Performed by SPARC's Adventure Junior Camp participants. Marlin, an anxious and over-protective clownfish, lives in the Great Barrier Reef with his kid Nemo, who longs to explore the world beyond their anemone home. When Nemo is captured and taken to Sydney, Marlin faces his fears and sets off on an epic adventure across the ocean. With the help of lovable characters such as optimistic Dory, laid-back sea turtle Crush, and the supportive Tank Gang, Marlin and Nemo both overcome challenges on their journey to find each other and themselves.

Aug 10 at 3:45, 5:30, & 7:15pm. Henrico Theatre.

Performed by SPARC's Adventure Camp participants. Roald Dahl's Willy Wonka Jr. follows enigmatic candy manufacturer Willy Wonka as he stages a contest by hiding golden tickets in five of his scrumptious candy bars. Whomever comes up with these tickets will win a free tour of the Wonka factory, as well as a lifetime supply of candy. The children must learn to follow Mr. Wonka's rules in the factory - or suffer the consequences.

Free. Information: 804-652-1460

HENRICO THEATRE COMPANY

presents

A comedy by Summer Arthur Long.

July 19-August 4

All performances will be held at The Cultural Arts Center.

This good old fashioned domestic farce is about a married man in his fifties who suddenly learns he's becoming a father again. His last child, a girl, was born 24 years ago and, considering the fool she married, he finds the prospect of another unthinkable. Plus, his previously meek little wife begins to lay down the law. There's to be a nursery, a new bath, and she's to have her own checking account. Such dour capitulation you'll never see again. Plain, simple and old-fashioned laughter!
