

Hot streak —Board again boosts REAP, tax relief in new county budget

On the surface, county government budgets and the game of baseball don't seem to have much in common.

Both are traditional rites of spring, of course. But the analogy stretches thin rather quickly.

Kick some dirt off the surface, however, and connections appear. Both require long hours of preparation in the dark months of winter. Both depend on strong leadership, experience and foresight. And both recognize the importance of maintaining a streak.

Much like a hot hitter, the Henrico County Board of Supervisors kept several key streaks alive on April 24 when it approved the county's $1.08 billion operating and capital budget for 2007-08. Two streaks in particular stood out: the further reduction of Henrico's real estate tax rate and the continued expansion of the county's tax relief program for seniors and disabled residents.

Tax rate slashed, again

"As Henrico grows, our government has to keep pace with the increasing demand for top-quality services that our residents have come to expect,"

said

County

Manager

Virgil R.

Hazelett,

P.E. "In

this budget,

the board has done an outstanding job

of balancing the requirements of government with the needs of residents for tax relief."

The board voted unanimously to lower the real estate tax rate for 2007, reducing it to 87 cents per $100 of assessed value. The new rate — effective retroactively to Jan. 1 — is a 3-cent drop from the 2006 rate.

The board has reduced the rate three straight years, shaving 7 cents from it over that period. The cut continues a long-running streak: the board has not increased the real estate tax rate in 30 years, since 1977.

The reduction also helps Henrico maintain its position as the lowest-tax urban locality in Virginia, according to the City of Chesapeake's annual "13 City/County Comparison."

—CONTINUED, NEXT PAGE—

New stadium hits home run with youth sports fans

Peanuts. Cracker Jack. The ping of the aluminum bat. Youth baseball fans of all ages now are enjoying the sights, scents and sounds of a new season at the latest addition to Henrico County's vaunted lineup of recreational facilities — Glen Allen Stadium at RF&P Park.

Members of the Henrico County Board of Supervisors and county officials joined hundreds of players, coaches, families,

This Issue

- 2 Community Cleanup seeks volunteers
- 4 Automated refuse pickup begins
- 4 Three Lakes reopens
- 5 HCTV program schedule
- 6 50th Student Government Day
- 7 Recreation Roundup

to cut the ceremonial ribbon and officially dedicate the recently completed stadium.

Construction began in August 2005, and the stadium hosted its first game on March 14. Henrico voters approved funding for the $4 million project in the 2005 bond referendum.

Located at 3400 Mountain

Road in RF&P Park, Glen Allen Stadium becomes the centerpiece

—CONTINUED, PAGE 3—

County officials joined hundreds of Henrico baseball fans to christen the new Glen Allen Stadium.

friends and others — as well as special "guests" Babe Ruth and Jackie Robinson — on April 20

Hot streak, continued

Tax relief expanded, again

Average real estate taxes paid by Henrico residents are lower than those of any of the state's 13 largest localities. They also are the lowest in the Richmond metropolitan area.

As most homeowners know, however, a reduced tax rate does not necessarily translate into reduced taxes, especially in the current climate of rising assessments — the average residential assessment in Henrico increased by about 7 percent in 2007.

For seniors and disabled residents living on fixed incomes, this trend can present special chal-

“The goal in this budget was to fully eliminate the real estate tax for the majority of our senior and disabled households.”

The new budget includes $1.8 million in enhancements to REAP, designed to expand the program's eligibility while also significantly increasing the tax relief it provides. (For a resident to qualify for REAP, he or she must own and occupy the real estate and must be 65 or older, or permanently and totally disabled.)

- ▶ Effective retroactively to Jan. 1, Henrico homeowners qualify if their net worth is $350,000 or less, excluding the value of the home and up to 10 acres. This maximum relief.

- ▶ Effective retroactively to Jan. 1, the matrix previously used to calculate tax relief has been eliminated. This change means that any household qualifying for REAP will receive a 100 percent reduction in its real estate tax bill, up to the maximum of $3,000 annually.
- ▶ Effective July 1, residents qualifying for REAP also will receive bulky waste pickup and leaf vacuum services, free of charge, from Henrico's Public Utilities.
- ▶ Effective Jan. 1, 2008, the income cap for a household will increase from $52,000 to $62,000.

County officials estimate that more than 4,000 households will participate in REAP in 2007, meaning that approximately half of the eligible population will receive real estate tax relief. And each of those households will receive 100 percent relief, up to the $3,000 cap.

Officials expect to award $4.1 million in tax relief this year.

“The REAP program is a great tool for helping our senior and disabled residents, especially in this environment of rising assessments,” said Director of Finance Reta Busher. “The board's leadership and determination to expand the program speak volumes about its attention to this segment of our population.”

Annual REAP application deadlines are usually set for April 1. Due to the numerous changes to the program, however, the application deadline has been extended to Monday, July 2, for this year only.

“We encourage all residents who think they may qualify to apply, even those who think they may be borderline,” Busher said. “They may become eligible when the new income cap goes into effect next January.”

For more information about REAP, or to obtain an application, call 501-4263 or visit the Finance Department's Revenue Division at the Henrico Government Center, 4301 E. Parham Road.

'Tis the season for cleaning —Volunteers sought for Community Cleanup program

You never know what kind of household debris may find its way to the curb for one of Henrico's Community Cleanup events. Over the past 10 years, Community Planner Melvin Slough has seen a little bit of everything.

“Tires, lawn mowers, refrigerators, air conditioners, different pieces of furniture,” Slough listed. “Even a few johnboats.

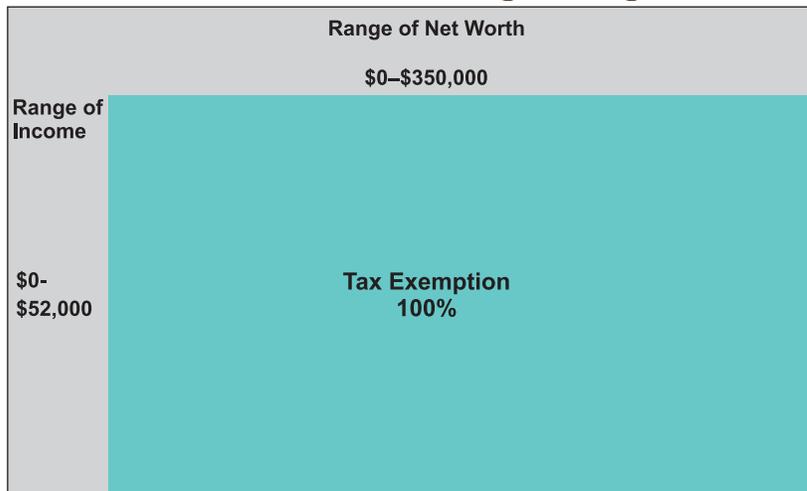

“There isn't a lot that we haven't picked up,” he said. “But it's well worth the effort.”

Calling all volunteers

Now Slough, who coordinates the Community Cleanup program for Community Maintenance, a division of the county's Department of Community Revitalization, is looking for something else: volunteers.

“When we're preparing for a cleanup in a neighborhood, we ask residents to move their yard debris and household trash to the curb, so it can be picked up,” he said. “But not everyone — especially our elderly and disabled residents — can do that by them-

Determination of Amount Awarded in Real Estate Advantage Program

lenges. Henrico's board continued its aggressive efforts to provide tax relief to these residents, approving significant expansions to the county's Real Estate Advantage Program — better known as REAP — in the 2007-08 budget.

“Lowering the rate paid by all Henrico homeowners is crucial,” Hazelett said, “but the board has to take into special consideration the burden faced by our residents living on fixed incomes.

change represents a $100,000 increase, from the previous threshold of $250,000.

- ▶ Effective retroactively to Jan. 1, Henrico homeowners can receive a maximum of $3,000 in annual tax relief, an increase of $1,000 over the previous limit. This change means homes valued at $344,828 and below could receive maxi-

The Community Cleanup program helped residents remove nearly 4,100 tons of debris in 2006.

selves.

“That’s where our volunteers come in.”

With the 2007 Community Cleanup schedule under way, Slough hopes to increase volunteer participation to help with what he anticipates will be a busy season. He noted that he has coordinated 204 “special projects” for residents — those requiring volunteer assistance — this year. The previous year totaled 297.

“Our philosophy is we’ll do whatever we can to benefit our residents, to make their neighborhoods safer and help them look better,” Slough said. “Volunteers play a key role.”

The cleanups, which began in March, continue most Saturdays through Nov. 3. Individuals are welcome to volunteer, as well as religious groups, civic groups and other organizations.

For volunteer information, call Slough at 501-7628, send him an e-mail at slo09@co.henrico.va.us or log on to www.co.henrico.va.us/revit.

Helping residents and neighborhoods

The Community Cleanup program, which is provided free of charge for residents, has become an integral part of the county’s revitalization efforts since the program began as a targeted project for the Lakeside neighborhood in 1996.

In 2006, the program held 62 cleanups countywide on 31 weekends, collecting nearly 4,100 tons of yard waste, household items and other debris; some 193 volunteers contributed almost 1,000 hours last year. A similar number of cleanups are planned for the 2007 season. Fifty people have volunteered more than 390 hours this year; through April 14, 738 tons of debris had been removed.

Community cleanups now encompass the efforts of several county agencies in addition to Community Maintenance, including Public Utilities, Police and Community Corrections.

While the program has expanded significantly over the past decade, its mission has remained streamlined — to help Henrico neighborhoods showing signs of distress through code enforcement of property maintenance violations and debris removal, making property more viable and valuable for homeowners.

Neighborhoods must qualify for the Community Cleanup program, which targets older areas with moderate income levels, Slough said. Neighborhoods range in size from Lakeside and Highland Springs with 2,600 and 1,330 homes, respectively, to Sanburne Park and Robinwood, with 424 homes.

“Each neighborhood is different, and each is important,” he said, noting that cleanups are intended only for residential properties and waste.

Most cleanups are completed in a single day. Typically, residents are notified two weeks prior to a cleanup in their neighborhood; they are asked to place most debris curbside by 8 a.m. of the cleanup day and also receive a list of debris and household items that can be discarded safely (for a complete listing, log on to www.co.henrico.va.us/revit).

Senior and disabled residents needing assistance should contact Community Maintenance by the Wednesday prior to their cleanup date.

“We’re always making sure we target the areas that need to be targeted, but we take calls as well,” Slough said. “Ultimately, we just want to help our residents maintain their properties and their neighborhoods. That’s what this program is about.”

For more information, contact Melvin Slough at 501-7628 or call the Community Maintenance 24-hour hotline at 501-4757.

New stadium, continued

of the park’s base-ball, softball and football fields for youth sports. Designed to evoke classic, early 20th-century ballparks such as Wrigley Field and Fenway Park, the stadium incorporates the original RF&P (Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac) railroad cars already present in the park. The RF&P Corporation donated the land for the 48-acre park in 1991.

While its looks may recall the early 20th century, Glen Allen Stadium boasts an array of 21st-century features. The modern facility includes covered bleachers with more than 600 individual seats and lawn seating for at least 600 more fans; sunken dugouts with restrooms; a large digital scoreboard and message board; a press box with a public address system, audiovisual system and five pan-tilt cameras that can film, edit and broadcast games; and a fully lighted and irrigated playing field engineered for quick drainage.

The park’s railroad theme continues at the concession building, which resembles a century-old train station with a 1916 U.S. Postal car parked nearby. Also, a passenger car dating to the early 1920s sits above the stadium’s left field wall. Fans can enter the car and watch games through its windows or on a pair of LED monitors receiving images from the press box.

Glen Allen Stadium’s inaugural season will reach an exciting climax in August, when it plays host to the 2007 Babe Ruth League 14-Year-Old World Series.

The Henrico Police Color Guard joined the ceremonies at Glen Allen Stadium.

The first automated refuse containers have arrived

February marked the beginning of a new era in Henrico County — automated refuse collection in designated areas.

As part of a five-year phased transition, 6,000 new 95-gallon carts began arriving at customer's homes earlier this year. This program creates a neater curbside appearance and makes it easier for customers to bring their trash to the curb.

Trash pickup is now hands-free in many parts of the county.

The county-provided cans are also a more efficient way for Henrico County employees to collect trash and it reduces their contact with everyday hazards, creating a safer working environment. The automated trucks allow drivers to empty the specially-designed containers into the truck using a mechanical arm controlled from the cab. The durable carts will withstand winds up to 40 mph and can hold the equivalent of three standard size hand-dumped trash cans.

Division Director of Solid Waste Steve Yob notes that, "this change will benefit our customers by making it easier to set out the trash and reducing employee injuries."

All trash must now be placed inside the cart, not next to it in bags or boxes. Residents may order an additional can from Henrico County for a $65 fee and there is no additional service charge to empty the second cart. Because the containers are county property, their delivery and repair are included in the cost. The best part about automated weekly refuse collection is there is no cost increase for the service.

For more information about trash pick-up in your neighborhood or to enroll in the program, please call 501-4275. To sign up electronically or by mail, check out the Department of Public Utilities' Web site at www.co.henrico.va.us/utility/solid-waste.

Water under the bridge — Three Lakes Nature Center reopens to rave reviews

One of the metropolitan region's top tourist draws — Henrico's Three Lakes Nature Center and Aquarium — is above water once again.

The facility suffered extensive flood damage in August 2004 when Tropical Storm Gaston brought nearly a foot of rain to the area. Now, more than two-and-half years and $1.4 million later, the key member of Henrico's park system is drawing large crowds once again.

Hundreds of residents joined county officials on April 21 to officially throw open the doors to the restored and modernized Three Lakes Nature Center and Aquarium. Visitors enjoyed live music, a petting zoo, hands-on displays of wild animals and ocean creatures, games, arts and crafts and more.

The center, designed to give visitors a firsthand view of the plant and animal life of the wetlands and woodlands of Henrico and central Virginia, first opened in 1992 and expanded in 1997. Located in north - central Henrico at 400 Sausiluta Drive, it now features more live animals on exhibit and additional interactive displays and animal habitats. The centerpiece remains the 50,000-gallon aquarium, filled with fish, turtles and other regional freshwater aquatic life.

Wildlife native to Henrico and central Virginia was on display at reopening ceremonies for Three Lakes Nature Center.

In 2003, the last full year it was open, more than 225,000 people came through the center's doors, ranking it fifth among area attractions, according to the Richmond Metropolitan Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Three Lakes Nature Center and Aquarium is open Tuesday through Sunday, noon to 4:30 p.m.; admission is free. The center will offer a variety of classes and special activities for young people throughout the summer. For more information, contact the center at 727-8230, log on to www.co.henrico.va.us/rec and follow the link for Three Lakes, or contact Henrico Recreation and Parks at 501-7275.

The 50,000-gallon aquarium is luring visitors again for the first time in nearly three years.

HCTV-Channel 17 spring schedule

For program descriptions or more information, tune to TV Guide Channel 20 or go to www.co.henrico.va.us/pr

		Even Hours 12 a.m., 2 a.m., 4 a.m., 6 a.m., 8 a.m., 10 a.m., Noon, 2 p.m., 4 p.m., 6 p.m., 8 p.m., 10 p.m.	Odd Hours 1 a.m., 3 a.m., 5 a.m., 7 a.m., 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m., 3 p.m., 5 p.m., 7 p.m., 9 p.m., 11 p.m.
May 21 through May 27	Mon Wed Fri Sun	Beyond the Palisade: Life in 17th Century Henrico - 34 mins	When Disaster Strikes: Are You Prepared? - 21 mins
	Tue Thu Sat	A Friend In Need - 19 mins	Planning for Henrico's Future - 23 mins
May 28 through June 3	Mon Wed Fri Sun	Magazine 17: Spring 2007 Edition	Working On The Roads: Developing, Improving and Maintaining Henrico's Road System - 21 mins
	Tue Thu Sat	The Legacy of Dabbs House - 23 mins	Never Forget: Henrico's Cold Cases - 34 mins
June 4 through June 10	Mon Wed Fri Sun	Alzheimer's Disease	A Plan That Works: Henrico's Permit Center - 16 mins
	Tue Thu Sat	On Air: Early Radio in Central Virginia - 33 mins	The Planting Zone: First Time Gardening - 26 mins
June 11 through June 17	Mon Wed Fri Sun	Recreation & Parks	A Road Through History - 32 mins
	Tue Thu Sat	The Promise Fulfilled: The History of Henrico County Public Schools - 31 mins	The Shadow of Life - 19 mins
June 18 through June 24	Mon Wed Fri Sun	Teenaged Drinking and Driving	Losing Weight, Gaining Life: The Obesity Epidemic - 19 mins
	Tue Thu Sat	Moving the Message: Public Relations & Media Services - 21 mins	Smart Lawns - 25 mins
June 25 through July 1	Mon Wed Fri Sun	Virginia Wildflowers	Taking Care of Business: Economic Development in Henrico County - 22 mins
	Tue Thu Sat	Tails of Survival: Life in Veterinary Hospitals - 29 mins	Taking Flight: Stories of Early Virginia Aviation - 53 mins

50th Student Government Day is biggest yet

More than 160 high school seniors — the largest group ever — took the reins of Henrico County's general government and public schools administrations in March when they assumed the roles of elected officials and top administrators for the 50th annual Student Government Day.

Designed to give students a

Student Government Day culminated with a mock Board of Supervisors meeting.

firsthand view of the operations of their local government, Student Government Day paired student leaders from nine Henrico high schools with key county officials, including the county manager, school superintendent, police and fire chiefs, Circuit Court judges and members of the Board of Supervisors and School Board.

Students took the oath of office before serving as members of the Board of Supervisors.

“Student Government Day is a special day for the county staff,” County Manager Virgil R. Hazelett, P.E. said. “We have the opportunity to give these outstanding young people a snapshot of something we’re truly dedicated to — serving the residents of Henrico County.”

Students shadowed their government counterparts throughout the day, gaining insight into the decision-making process and learning some of the details of local governance.

Students also had the opportunity to make decisions, conducting a simulated Board of Supervisors meeting in which they debated an ordinance regarding public intoxication, authorized expansion of Henrico's Real Estate Advantage Program and considered funding additional county routes for the Greater Richmond Transit Company.

“These are the kinds of decisions that affect the daily lives of all Henrico residents,” Hazelett told the students. “Local government touches your life every day. We hope you’ve gained a deeper understanding of how it works.”

Upcoming Community Cleanups

Community Cleanup events are scheduled nearly every Saturday through Nov. 3. Volunteers — individuals as well as groups — are needed. Following is a list of neighborhoods slated for upcoming cleanups. To volunteer, or to obtain additional information, contact Community Maintenance at 501-7628.

- May 19: Highland Springs; meet at Adult Education Center
- May 26: Greendale, Deep Run; meet at Dumbarton Library
- June 9: Sandston; meet at Sandston Rec Center
- June 16: Westhaven; meet at Crestview Elem.
- June 23: Westbourne, Dickensdale, Mayfield; meet at Johnson Elem.
- June 30: Biltmore, Longdale, Middleton Gee; meet at Longdale Elem.
- July 14: Village of Azalea, Meadowood; meet at Henrico High
- July 21: Watts Lane, Central Gardens, Cool Lane; meet at Math & Science Center
- July 28: Laburnum Heights; meet at Glen Lea Elem.

REAP Key Dates

- ▶ Jan. 1, 2007: Household net worth increased to $350,000
- ▶ Jan. 1, 2007: Household maximum relief increased to $3,000
- ▶ Jan. 1, 2007: All participants receive 100 percent relief (up to $3,000)
- ▶ July 1, 2007: Free bulky waste/leaf removal available
- ▶ July 2, 2007: Filing deadline (this year only)
- ▶ Jan. 1, 2008: Household income cap increases to $62,000

Recreation Roundup

Sun, May 13 & 20: Sundays in the Park.

Enjoy live music, contests and games for the kids in a clean, safe and family-friendly environment. Bring a picnic lunch or purchase food at the event. May 13: Christopher Dean Band at Deep Run Park. May 20: The Honky Tonk Experience at Osborne Park. 2-4 p.m. Free. Info: 501-5121.

Sat, May 26: The Doctor Is in.

Find out what it was like to be a doctor or a patient in 1860 and if there were hospitals or house calls. Noon-3:30 p.m. Meadow Farm Museum. Free. Info: 501-5520.

Sun, May 27 & June 10: Tavern Lawn Games.

In the tradition of 19th century lawn games, Walkerton invites you and your family for badminton, bocce, horseshoes and croquet. Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times. 1-5 p.m. Walkerton Tavern. Free. Info: 261-6898.

Sat, June 2: Varina Day.

The Varina Ruritan Club, in cooperation with the Division of Recreation & Parks, is hosting the 12th Annual Varina Community Day. Enjoy music and entertainment for the entire family—community display booths, a petting zoo and a children's moonwalk. 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Dorey Park. Free. Info: 501-5121.

Sat, June 2: Fresh Herbs for Your Health.

For ages 18+. This class will cover growing instructions as well as delicious and nutritious ways to use 10 popular herbs in everyday meals that you can grow in your own garden. Instructor: Nicole Schermerhorn. 10-11 a.m. Lavender Fields Farm in Glen Allen. $6, register by May 25. Info: 501-5147.

Sat & Sun, June 2 & 3: Civil War Encampment and Battle.

This annual event has moved to Dorey Park. Talk to Confederate and Union re-enactors as they portray camp life and re-enact the Battle of Gaine's Mill and Malvern Hill. Enjoy military, civilian and children's activities. Sat: 10 a.m.-5 p.m., dance at 7:30 p.m. Sun: noon-2:30 p.m. Battle at 2 p.m. each day. Dorey Park. Free. Info: 501-5520.

Fri, June 8: Summer Carnival.

For ages 3-6 with an adult. Join us as we welcome summer. Children can play carnival games, enjoy popcorn and lemonade and participate in a cakewalk. 4-5:30 p.m. Twin Hickory Recreation Center. $7.50, register by May 25. Info: 217-9061.

Sat, June 9: Letterboxing.

For ages 8+. Join us for an intriguing mix of treasure hunting, art, navigation and explore interesting, scenic and sometimes remote places. 10 a.m.-noon. Walkerton Tavern. Free. Info: 261-6898.

Sun, June 10: Medicine from the Garden.

Medicines did not always come in pill or liquid form. Visit Meadow Farm's garden and learn which plants and herbs may have been used to help cure mid-19th century ailments. Noon-3:30 p.m. Meadow Farm Museum. Free. Info: 501-5520.

Tue & Wed, June 12 & 13: On-the-Air Radio Players present "How the West was Heard."

Be a part of the studio audience for this hour long taping featuring live music, live sound effects and old commercials. Included in this broadcast will be three authentic western scripts from the golden age of radio taped before a live audience at The Cultural Arts Center at Glen Allen and aired later on 100.5 FM WZEZ. Directed by Gary Wade. 7:30 p.m. Free. Info: 501-5138.

Fri, June 15: Rock the Block.

Join your community for free family entertainment in your neighborhood park. Enjoy live music, contests and games. Concessions will be available for purchase. 6-8 p.m. Woodman Park. Free. Info: 501-5134.

Sat, June 16: Blacksmithing-Too Many Irons in the Fire.

The blacksmith was a very important member of the 19th century rural community. Watch and listen as the smith gets the iron red-hot and pounds and bends it into useful objects at the 1860 style forge. 9-11 a.m. Meadow Farm Museum. Free. Info: 501-5520.

Sat, June 16: Volunteer Recruitment and Training.

Do you need community service hours for school? Meadow Farm is looking for eager and energetic volunteers to help maintain the site and prepare for programs. Come hear more about these opportunities. 9-11 a.m. Meadow Farm Museum. Free. Info: 501-5520.

Sun, June 17: Old-Fashioned Ice Cream Social.

Come out and enjoy tunes by one of the area's finest string bands, The Company Store. Treat your taste buds to delicious ice cream and try some old-fashioned games and dances while listening to fiddle melodies, tight harmonies and moving spirituals. Great fun for the whole family. 4-6 p.m. Walkerton Tavern. Free. Info: 501-5134.

Sat, June 23: Under the Stars Summer Family Film Series.

Tonight's movie: "Happy Feet," rated PG. Grab a blanket and your family and come experience the thrill of outdoor movies and fun. Free popcorn and lemonade while supplies last. 8 p.m. Deep Run Park. Free. Info: 501-5121.

Sun, June 24, July 29 & Aug 26: Henrico Concert Band Summer Concert Series.

Bring a blanket or lawn chair on the last Sunday in June, July and August and spend a casual evening in the park. 6 p.m. Dorey Park. Free. Info: 501-5138. In case of inclement weather, concerts may be cancelled. There will be no rain dates.

Thur, June 28, July 26 & Aug 30: Henrico Community Band Summer Concert Series.

Bring the entire family and spend the last Thursday evening in each month relaxing in the park and listening to a variety of festive music. 7 p.m. Deep Run Park. Free. Info: 501-5138. In case of inclement weather, concerts may be cancelled. There will be no rain dates.

Sat, June 30: Under the Stars Summer Family Film Series.

Tonight's movie: "Akeelah and the Bee," rated PG. Grab a blanket and your family and come experience the thrill of outdoor movies and fun. Free popcorn and lemonade while supplies last. 8 p.m. Hidden Creek Park. Free. Info: 501-5121.

Wed, July 4: Old-Fashioned Fourth of July Celebration.

Join us for our spectacular celebration of America. Activities will include musical entertainment, patriotic arts and crafts, face painting, a petting zoo for children, contests and games for all ages, the new Little Patriot's Play Pavilion and more. Highlighting this event will be tethered hot air balloon rides, a watermelon feast, Uncle Sam on stilts, Jonathan Austin the juggler, a patriotic performance featuring a historic color guard, drum and fife music and a period musket salute by Living History Associates, Ltd. Concessions will be available for purchase. 1-5 p.m. Meadow Farm/Crump Park. Free. Info: 501-5121.

Wed, July 11: Hop Scotch and Jump Rope Contests.

For ages 5+. Bring your own rope and challenge a friend or Meadow Farm staff to these old-fashioned games. Contests and prizes are part of the fun. 1-3 p.m. Meadow Farm Museum. Free. Info: 501-5520.

Tue, July 17: 36th Annual Big Band Concert featuring Bill Zickafoose and the Continentals.

Enjoy the best of the big band sound as the Division of Recreation and Parks presents its 36th annual summer concert featuring Bill Zickafoose and the Continentals. Great music and fun for the entire family. 7-9 p.m. Hermitage High School. Free. Info: 501-5138.

For additional programs, check out a copy of "At Your Leisure," our catalogue of events and classes. Copies are available at your local library, or call the Division of Recreation & Parks at 501-7275 to be added to our mailing list.

Recreation & Parks
Community Relations,
Marketing & Publicity
P.O. Box 27032

Richmond, VA 23273-7032
(804) 501-PARK (7275)
www.co.henrico.va.us/rec

Henrico County Board of Supervisors

Three Chopt
David A. Kaechele
Vice Chairman
501-4207

Fairfield
Frank J. Thornton
501-4207

Tuckahoe
Patricia S. O'Bannon
501-4207

Brookland
Richard W. Glover
501-5292

Varina
James B. Donati, Jr.
Chairman
501-4207

Important County Telephone Numbers

Adult Protective Services.....	501-7346
Board of Supervisors.....	501-4207
Building Permits & Inspections.....	501-4360
Business Licenses/Personal Property.....	501-4310
Child Protective Services.....	501-5437
Community Maintenance.....	501-4757
Community Revitalization.....	501-7640
Fire - Non-emergency.....	501-4900
Food Stamps.....	501-4002
Health Clinic - East.....	652-3190
Health Clinic - West.....	501-4651
History/Historic Preservation.....	501-5736
Human Resources.....	501-4628
Human Resources 24-hour Jobline.....	501-5674
Leaf/Bulky Waste Collection.....	727-8770
Library Answer Line.....	652-3258
Magistrates.....	501-5285
Marriage Licenses.....	501-5055
Mental Health Emergency Services.....	727-8484
Planning & Zoning.....	501-4602
Police, Non-emergency.....	501-5000
Real Estate Assessment.....	501-4300
Recreation & Parks.....	501-7275
Schools.....	652-3600
Sheriff.....	501-4571
The Permit Center.....	501-7280
Traffic Ticket Court.....	501-4723
Vehicle Licenses/Personal Property.....	501-4263
Volunteer Program.....	501-5231
Voter Registration.....	501-4347

Government Center
4301 East Parham Road
501-4000

Eastern Government Center
3820 Nine Mile Road
652-3600

HENRICO TODAY

The award-winning Henrico Today is published quarterly on behalf of the Henrico County Board of Supervisors. To comment or make suggestions contact:

Public Relations & Media Services

County of Henrico

P.O. Box 27032

Richmond, VA 23273-7032

(804) 501-4257

www.co.henrico.va.us

Proud of our progress;
Excited about our future.