Develop Police/Community Partnerships - Get Involved - Stay Safe!

HELP US DEVELOP PARTNERSHIPS!

Henrico Police is dedicated to keeping its residents safe and protecting their rights. Fair and Impartial Policing is the Guiding Principle of the Police Division's daily operations. Essentially, this means we treat all others as we would want to be treated or as we would want our family members treated.

We have many services, resources, and programs we provide to our residents. Partner with us through one of the programs listed below:

- LGBTQ+ Liaison - Lieutenant Colonel Linda Toney is the Division's appointed LGBTQ+ Community Liaison. Get to know her and discuss your concerns. Contact Lt. Col. Toney at ton05@henrico.us or 804-501-4852.
- Domestic Violence Support - Our Domestic Violence Coordinator provides services and resources to help those in violent relationships. For more information, go to Domestic Violence Assistance under Crime Prevention at henrico.us/police, or call our DV Coordinator at 804-501-5732.
- Community Services - The Division offers a variety of services, programs, or resources to you, your group or organization at no charge. Visit henrico.us/police and select Services, to see the many offerings available.

GET INVOLVED!

Henrico Police offers many opportunities to get involved with our officers and staff members. Some of those opportunities are listed below:

- Citizens Police Academies - Twice annually, we offer both a Citizens Police Academy and Senior Citizens Police Academy. Once annually, we offer a Youth Police Academy. To find out when the next academy will be held, watch for announcements on henrico.us/police, our social media channels, or call 804-501-4838.
- Volunteer Opportunities - The Division offers many opportunities for volunteers. From Motorist Assistance to clerical support, there are many ways you can become involved and support the Division through your skills and talents.
- Neighborhood Watch - Call 804-501-4838 to find out if your neighborhood has a Neighborhood Watch and if not, learn how you can start one.
- Faith Community Coalition - The Division is committed to protecting its residents' rights including their freedom of religion. Its partnership with the faith community through its Faith Community Coalition provides crime prevention training and support to those in leadership positions within houses of worship. To find out if your house of worship is part of the Faith Community Coalition, or to learn more, call 804-501-4838.

SALT—Seniors and Law Enforcement Together/Triad - This group of active seniors stays involved with police and sheriff's departments to stay informed and engaged in senior safety. They enjoy programs and presentations at their meetings. For more information, or to join, call 804-501-4838.

YOUR SAFETY IS IMPORTANT TO US!

- Our officers are available to conduct security surveys of your home, business, or house of worship, as well as presentations on personal safety, active shooter, general crime prevention, and more. Simply call 804-501-5933 to schedule your security survey, program, or presentation and give at least 30 days prior notice.
- We have many safety brochures online at henrico.us/police/brochures. Follow our tips and suggestions to keep yourself and your loved ones safe.
