Re: Request to Transfer Provisional Use Permit
P-24-93

Dear Ms. John:

Based on the information provided in your letter dated March 23 and subsequent information we received on March 25, 1998, I am granting your request to transfer Provisional Use Permit P-24-97 from Mad Dog, Inc. to Damon's Innsbrook, Inc.

The material you have submitted indicates your understanding of and compliance with the conditions of Section 122.1 of the Zoning Ordinance to protect the health, safety and general welfare and the conditions of Provisional Use Permit P-24-93. Your submittals stipulate the use will continue to be a restaurant without dancing or pool tables and Damon's at Innsbrook, Inc. agrees to abide by the condition of the Provisional Use Permit.

Please understand that if Damon's does not continue to comply with the specific conditions, or if in the future the operation has a deleterious effect on the surrounding area, the Permit may be revoked after a public hearing by the Board.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss this matter further, please don't hesitate to call. Best of luck in your new endeavor.

Sincerely,

Re: Request to Transfer Provisional
Use Permit P-24-93

Dear Mr. Simmons:

Based on the information provided in your letter dated January 20, 2004, I am granting your request to transfer Provisional Use Permit P-24-93 from Damon's Innsbrook to Ale House of Innsbrook, LLC (dba Capital Ale House). This Use Permit was to extend the operating hours of a restaurant and outdoor dining until 2:00 a.m.

The material you submitted indicates your understanding of and compliance with the conditions of Section 122.1 of the Zoning Ordinance to protect health, safety, and general welfare and the conditions of Provisional Use Permit P-24-93. Your submittal stipulates the use will continue to be a restaurant without more than two pool tables or electronic games and, Ale House of Innsbrook, LLC agrees to continue to abide by the conditions set forth in the Provisional Use Permit P-24-93.

I understand you have discussed with planning staff the possibility for operating more than two pool tables or electronic games at this location. As you are aware, zoning ordinance regulations will require a Provisional Use Permit approved by the County of Henrico Board of Supervisors.

Please understand that if Ale House of Innsbrook, LLC does not continue to comply with the specific conditions, or if in the future the operation has a deleterious effect on the surrounding area, the permit may be revoked after a public hearing by the County of Henrico Board of Supervisors.

Please contact Joe Emerson, Comprehensive Planning Division Manager, at 501-4605 if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

John R. Marlies, AICP
