The National Association of Counties (NACo) has appointed 12 Henrico officials to the association's policy steering committees and to the recently created Homeland Security Task Force.

Members of Henrico's Board of Supervisors will serve on the following steering committees: Board Chairman and Brookland District Supervisor Richard W. Glover, Transportation; Vice Chairman and Varina District Supervisor James B. Donati, Jr., Community and Economic Development; Fairfield District Supervisor Frank J. Thornton, Human Services and Education; Three Chopt District Supervisor David A. Kaechele, Finance and Intergovernmental Affairs; and Tuckahoe District Supervisor Patricia S. O'Bannon, Telecommunications and Technology. The following county officials will also serve on NACo steering committees: Henrico County Manager Virgil R. Hazelett, P.E., Justice and Public Safety; Deputy County Manager George T. Drumwright, Jr., Health; Deputy County Manager Harvey L. Hinson, Environment, Energy and Land Use; Deputy County Manager Robert K. Pinkerton, Public Lands; and Capital Area Training Consortium Director Rosalyn D. Key, Labor and Employee Benefits. -MORE- NACo President Javier Gonzales has appointed Henrico Deputy County Manager Angela N. Harper and Legislative Liaison Linda G. Robinson to the new Task Force on Homeland Security.

The 40-member task force will work to secure the nation's communities and serve as a direct link between counties and federal agencies. Approximately 60-100 county officials comprise each of NACo's 11 steering committees to form its policy-making arm. Committees meet several times a year to examine issues critical to local government, and make recommendations on legislative policies and goals before Congress and the White House.

NACo is the only national organization representing county governments in the United States. Its goals are to improve county government, act as a liaison with other levels of government, serve as the national voice for counties, and to advance public understanding of the role of counties.
