Henrico Police to Receive Donated Canine Ballistic Vest

The Henrico County Police Division will receive a ballistic vest for one of its newest canines after a generous donation initiated by the Cumberland Hospital for Adolescents in New Kent County. The presentation will take place February 15, 2017 at 3:00 p.m. at the New Kent County Sheriff's Office located at 11995 Courthouse Circle, New Kent, Virginia 23124.

The Cumberland Hospital of Adolescents made a monetary donation to the New Kent County Sheriff's Office in honor of Sarah Ann McLaughlin. Sarah was a communications officer with the New Kent Sheriff's Office and the daughter of Sheriff Joe McLaughlin Jr. and his wife, Robin. Sarah was also an avid animal enthusiast, and their donation was intended for the purchase of a bullet resistant vest for a canine. The New Kent Sheriff's Office does not have a canine, so Sheriff Joe McLaughlin Jr. offered to purchase a vest for a Henrico County police canine.

Although substantial, this donation was not enough to cover the total cost of the ballistic vest. However, Spikes K9 Fund, a Virginia-based non-profit organization, was contacted and agreed to assist with the purchase. Due to the generosity of these organizations, the Henrico County Police Division will be receiving a ballistic vest for one of its canines.

The Henrico County Police Division would like to publicly thank the Cumberland Hospital of Adolescents, the New Kent County Sheriff's Office, Spikes K9 Fund, and Sheriff Joe McLaughlin Jr. and his family for this generous donation. We are grateful for the opportunity for one of our canines to utilize this piece of protective equipment in Sarah's honor.

In 2015, the Police Division's training academy and communications center each began an eighteen-month process of self-assessment to determine if these two entities could meet the standards for full stand-alone accreditation. In November 2016, in addition to an on-site accreditation for law enforcement, separate teams of out-of-state assessors were sent for a three-day assessment of the policies, procedures, and operations of the training academy and communications center.

On March 25, 2017, Division members testified at a hearing before the CALEA Board of Commissioners to answer questions related to compliance with the standards set forth for each of the three entities. The law enforcement section was awarded its ninth re-accreditation and initial accreditation was conferred upon the training academy and communications.

"This is not something that can be achieved merely by an onsite assessment at the end of a three or four-year assessment cycle. This is something that requires an agency fully embracing the spirit of accreditation by not just developing good policies and practices but by the manner in which we conduct ourselves and carry out our mission on a daily basis; being the best at serving our community and serving our profession. The ability to achieve this milestone is a testament to each and every one of our employees for what they do every day", said Chief Cardounel.

All three areas will now enter a four-year re-accreditation cycle where the standards will have to be continually applied and conformed with to remain a TRI-ARC agency.

Henrico Police Offers Drug Take Back Program

The Henrico County Police Division along with the U. S. Drug Enforcement Administration will participate in the nationwide Prescription Drug Take Back Program. This will take place on Saturday, April 29, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Henrico County Training Center located at 7701 East Parham Road which is next to the Public Safety Building.

The program is free and anonymous. Unused or expired pills, patches, and liquid prescriptions (in their sealed original container) will be accepted. Needles and sharp items will not be accepted. No questions will be asked.

This initiative addresses a vital public safety and public health issue. Medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse and abuse. Rates of prescription drug abuse in the U.S. are alarmingly high, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs. Studies show that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet. In addition, Americans are now advised that their usual methods for disposing of unused medicines—flushing them down the toilet or throwing them in the trash—pose potential safety and health hazards.

For more information on the program, visit www.dea.gov.

Henrico Police Announce Results of Cigarette Trafficking Investigation

Forty-three (43) people have been indicted on 743 indictments resulting from a year-plus long investigation into illegal cigarette trafficking.

In late 2015, the Henrico County Police Division began to investigate illegal cigarette trafficking in Henrico County due to the violent crime that was associated with it. A number of robberies, shooting incidents, and burglaries were directly related to the illegal trafficking of cigarettes. The investigation developed into a larger regional and multi-state operation.

This investigation incorporated more than twenty agencies including local, state and federal law enforcement as well as corporate business. This unique partnership collaborated to address what was determined to be an organized criminal enterprise. The suspects utilized fraudulent documentation to create twenty-nine fictitious businesses in Richmond-metro area. The businesses would then be utilized to purchase large quantities of tax-exempt cigarettes. The cigarettes would then be transported out of state and resold for substantial profit. This investigation encompassed over 600,000 cartons of cigarettes with an estimated value in excess of $30,000,000.

All the indictments are for offenses that occurred in Henrico County, Virginia.

The following agencies contributed significantly to this investigation:

Hoax Explosive

On May 19, 2017 Henrico Police responded to the 11100 block of W. Broad Street for a suspicious item, resembling a bomb, in a vehicle. Responding officers confirmed the item resembled an explosive device and initiated a public safety response accordingly.

The photograph below is the actual device as it was seen sitting in the vehicle. This is how the citizen saw it, which prompted the 911 call. To both the citizen and the responding officers, this did not appear to be a clock, but rather an explosive device that warranted immediate action to ensure the public's safety.

Due to events worldwide, law enforcement asks citizens to be vigilant of suspicious activity. It is also important for people to consider their own actions and act responsibly. Placing what readily appears to resemble an explosive device, in a vehicle, in a very public setting is likely to illicit a public safety concern. This device was clearly designed to look like an explosive device. The fact it turned out to not be an actual explosive device does not diminish the impact it had on the community and the resources dedicated to ensuring it was handled properly.

Henrico Police Offers Drug Take Back Program

The Henrico County Police Division along with the U. S. Drug Enforcement Administration will participate in the nationwide Prescription Drug Take Back Program. This will take place on Saturday, October 28, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Henrico County Training Center located at 7701 East Parham Road which is next to the Public Safety Building (access should be from Shrader Road).

The program is free and anonymous. Unused or expired pills and patches will be accepted. Liquids, needles and sharp items will not be accepted. No questions will be asked.

Last April Americans turned in 450 tons (900,000 pounds) of prescription drugs at almost 5,500 sites operated by the DEA and more than 4,200 of its state and local law enforcement partners. Overall, in its 13 previous Take Back events, DEA and its partners have taken in over 8.1 million pounds—more than 4,050 tons—of pills.

This initiative addresses a vital public safety and public health issue. Medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse and abuse. Rates of prescription drug abuse in the U.S. are alarmingly high, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs. Studies show that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet. In addition, Americans are now advised that their usual methods for disposing of unused medicines—flushing them down the toilet or throwing them in the trash—pose potential safety and health hazards.

For more information on the program, visit www.dea.gov.

Henrico Police Cautions Citizens to be Wary of Jury Duty, Other Scams

Henrico Police want to remind citizens to be wary of scams during the upcoming tax season, as well as throughout the year. Be particularly vigilant of scams in which the caller professes to be from a governmental agency and requires the purchase of pre-paid money cards to absolve you of an error or wrong-doing.

Henrico Police have received numerous reports of fraudsters employing the Jury Duty Scam. The caller portrays themselves as a court official or member of law enforcement – some are even using names of current Henrico County officials. The caller notifies you warrants have been issued for your arrest because you missed grand jury or jury duty. The caller then advises the only way to remedy this matter is by obtaining pre-paid money card(s) and giving them the numbers from the card(s).

As personal income taxes are being filed and tax returns received, there is also a notable increase of scams during the first half of each year. As with the Jury Duty Scam, fraudsters portray themselves as a government official, notify you of delinquent fines, then waive a portion of the fine if you obtain pre-paid money card(s) and give them the numbers from the card(s).

Henrico Police reminds citizens to NEVER give away personal or financial information to unverified sources and NEVER purchase pre-paid money cards when receiving telephone calls/text messages/emails such as these. If you know or care for senior-citizens, we encourage you to share this information with them as they can be particularly vulnerable to these scams.

For additional information and resources about these and other common scams, go to <https://henrico.us/services/report-criminal-fraud-henrico/>.

If you are the victim of fraud, a scam, or identity theft in Henrico County, contact Henrico Police at our non-emergency number 804-501-5000.

Henrico Police to Receive Donated Canine Ballistic Vest

The Henrico County Police Division will receive a ballistic vest for one of its newest canines after a generous donation initiated by the Cumberland Hospital for Adolescents in New Kent County. The presentation will take place February 15, 2017 at 3:00 p.m. at the New Kent County Sheriff's Office located at 11995 Courthouse Circle, New Kent, Virginia 23124.

The Cumberland Hospital of Adolescents made a monetary donation to the New Kent County Sheriff's Office in honor of Sarah Ann McLaughlin. Sarah was a communications officer with the New Kent Sheriff's Office and the daughter of Sheriff Joe McLaughlin Jr. and his wife, Robin. Sarah was also an avid animal enthusiast, and their donation was intended for the purchase of a bullet resistant vest for a canine. The New Kent Sheriff's Office does not have a canine, so Sheriff Joe McLaughlin Jr. offered to purchase a vest for a Henrico County police canine.

Although substantial, this donation was not enough to cover the total cost of the ballistic vest. However, Spikes K9 Fund, a Virginia-based non-profit organization, was contacted and agreed to assist with the purchase. Due to the generosity of these organizations, the Henrico County Police Division will be receiving a ballistic vest for one of its canines.

The Henrico County Police Division would like to publicly thank the Cumberland Hospital of Adolescents, the New Kent County Sheriff's Office, Spikes K9 Fund, and Sheriff Joe McLaughlin Jr. and his family for this generous donation. We are grateful for the opportunity for one of our canines to utilize this piece of protective equipment in Sarah's honor.

In 2015, the Police Division's training academy and communications center each began an eighteen-month process of self-assessment to determine if these two entities could meet the standards for full stand-alone accreditation. In November 2016, in addition to an on-site accreditation for law enforcement, separate teams of out-of-state assessors were sent for a three-day assessment of the policies, procedures, and operations of the training academy and communications center.

On March 25, 2017, Division members testified at a hearing before the CALEA Board of Commissioners to answer questions related to compliance with the standards set forth for each of the three entities. The law enforcement section was awarded its ninth re-accreditation and initial accreditation was conferred upon the training academy and communications.

"This is not something that can be achieved merely by an onsite assessment at the end of a three or four-year assessment cycle. This is something that requires an agency fully embracing the spirit of accreditation by not just developing good policies and practices but by the manner in which we conduct ourselves and carry out our mission on a daily basis; being the best at serving our community and serving our profession. The ability to achieve this milestone is a testament to each and every one of our employees for what they do every day", said Chief Cardounel.

All three areas will now enter a four-year re-accreditation cycle where the standards will have to be continually applied and conformed with to remain a TRI-ARC agency.

Henrico Police Offers Drug Take Back Program

The Henrico County Police Division along with the U. S. Drug Enforcement Administration will participate in the nationwide Prescription Drug Take Back Program. This will take place on Saturday, April 29, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Henrico County Training Center located at 7701 East Parham Road which is next to the Public Safety Building.

The program is free and anonymous. Unused or expired pills, patches, and liquid prescriptions (in their sealed original container) will be accepted. Needles and sharp items will not be accepted. No questions will be asked.

This initiative addresses a vital public safety and public health issue. Medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse and abuse. Rates of prescription drug abuse in the U.S. are alarmingly high, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs. Studies show that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet. In addition, Americans are now advised that their usual methods for disposing of unused medicines—flushing them down the toilet or throwing them in the trash—pose potential safety and health hazards.

For more information on the program, visit www.dea.gov.

Henrico Police Announce Results of Cigarette Trafficking Investigation

Forty-three (43) people have been indicted on 743 indictments resulting from a year-plus long investigation into illegal cigarette trafficking.

In late 2015, the Henrico County Police Division began to investigate illegal cigarette trafficking in Henrico County due to the violent crime that was associated with it. A number of robberies, shooting incidents, and burglaries were directly related to the illegal trafficking of cigarettes. The investigation developed into a larger regional and multi-state operation.

This investigation incorporated more than twenty agencies including local, state and federal law enforcement as well as corporate business. This unique partnership collaborated to address what was determined to be an organized criminal enterprise. The suspects utilized fraudulent documentation to create twenty-nine fictitious businesses in Richmond-metro area. The businesses would then be utilized to purchase large quantities of tax-exempt cigarettes. The cigarettes would then be transported out of state and resold for substantial profit. This investigation encompassed over 600,000 cartons of cigarettes with an estimated value in excess of $30,000,000.

All the indictments are for offenses that occurred in Henrico County, Virginia.

The following agencies contributed significantly to this investigation:

Henrico Police Offers Drug Take Back Program

The Henrico County Police Division along with the U. S. Drug Enforcement Administration will participate in the nationwide Prescription Drug Take Back Program. This will take place on Saturday, October 28, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Henrico County Training Center located at 7701 East Parham Road which is next to the Public Safety Building (access should be from Shrader Road).

The program is free and anonymous. Unused or expired pills and patches will be accepted. Liquids, needles and sharp items will not be accepted. No questions will be asked.

Last April Americans turned in 450 tons (900,000 pounds) of prescription drugs at almost 5,500 sites operated by the DEA and more than 4,200 of its state and local law enforcement partners. Overall, in its 13 previous Take Back events, DEA and its partners have taken in over 8.1 million pounds—more than 4,050 tons—of pills.

This initiative addresses a vital public safety and public health issue. Medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse and abuse. Rates of prescription drug abuse in the U.S. are alarmingly high, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs. Studies show that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet. In addition, Americans are now advised that their usual methods for disposing of unused medicines—flushing them down the toilet or throwing them in the trash—pose potential safety and health hazards.

For more information on the program, visit www.dea.gov.

Henrico Police Cautions Citizens to be Wary of Jury Duty, Other Scams

Henrico Police want to remind citizens to be wary of scams during the upcoming tax season, as well as throughout the year. Be particularly vigilant of scams in which the caller professes to be from a governmental agency and requires the purchase of pre-paid money cards to absolve you of an error or wrong-doing.

Henrico Police have received numerous reports of fraudsters employing the Jury Duty Scam. The caller portrays themselves as a court official or member of law enforcement – some are even using names of current Henrico County officials. The caller notifies you warrants have been issued for your arrest because you missed grand jury or jury duty. The caller then advises the only way to remedy this matter is by obtaining pre-paid money card(s) and giving them the numbers from the card(s).

As personal income taxes are being filed and tax returns received, there is also a notable increase of scams during the first half of each year. As with the Jury Duty Scam, fraudsters portray themselves as a government official, notify you of delinquent fines, then waive a portion of the fine if you obtain pre-paid money card(s) and give them the numbers from the card(s).

Henrico Police reminds citizens to NEVER give away personal or financial information to unverified sources and NEVER purchase pre-paid money cards when receiving telephone calls/text messages/emails such as these. If you know or care for senior-citizens, we encourage you to share this information with them as they can be particularly vulnerable to these scams.

For additional information and resources about these and other common scams, go to <https://henrico.us/services/report-criminal-fraud-henrico/>.

If you are the victim of fraud, a scam, or identity theft in Henrico County, contact Henrico Police at our non-emergency number 804-501-5000.

Hoax Explosive

On May 19, 2017 Henrico Police responded to the 11100 block of W. Broad Street for a suspicious item, resembling a bomb, in a vehicle. Responding officers confirmed the item resembled an explosive device and initiated a public safety response accordingly.

The photograph below is the actual device as it was seen sitting in the vehicle. This is how the citizen saw it, which prompted the 911 call. To both the citizen and the responding officers, this did not appear to be a clock, but rather an explosive device that warranted immediate action to ensure the public's safety.

Due to events worldwide, law enforcement asks citizens to be vigilant of suspicious activity. It is also important for people to consider their own actions and act responsibly. Placing what readily appears to resemble an explosive device, in a vehicle, in a very public setting is likely to illicit a public safety concern. This device was clearly designed to look like an explosive device. The fact it turned out to not be an actual explosive device does not diminish the impact it had on the community and the resources dedicated to ensuring it was handled properly.
