Henrico Resident Reports Receiving Letter from Hate Group

Henrico County, Va. – A Henrico County community member, who lives in Sandston, reported receiving a letter in the mail this week with a disturbing message concerning political retribution from a known hate group.

Henrico Police is working closely with federal partners, including the US Postal Inspection Service. Henrico Police has increased patrols in and around the community in which the letter was received.

“We are committed to the safety and wellbeing of our community members,” said Chief Eric English. “Acts of intimidation will not be tolerated in our community. Anyone committing criminal acts will be charged accordingly.”

If you have received a letter similar in nature, or have information regarding this case, contact the Henrico Police at (804) 501-5000, U.S. Postal Inspection Service at (877) 876-2455, or anonymously through Crime Stoppers at P3Tips.com or (804) 780-1000.
